

Mott MacDonald, a leading international engineering company with 15000 staff worldwide, is expanding its business activities in Serbia and the Western Balkans and it is looking for:

1. E & M TEAM LEADER

The Serbian office is recruiting a Principal Engineer to establish and lead a team of electrical and mechanical engineers, based in Budapest, working on international transportation projects.

Required Experience:

- Design engineering experience in a consultancy environment (min. 10 years), preferably related to road and rail tunnels and metro systems
- Project management including financial and contract aspects
- Business Development
- Professional design licence is required

Required Skills:

- Excellent communication in Serbian and English
- Managing several projects at once
- Team management and development

We offer:

Market competitive package
International business culture
Support for personal development

If you feel you can meet the challenges, please send your CV in English to konkursmottmacdonald_53752@infostud.com

