To secure the success we want to set the best team and here is your big chance!

For our new head quarter in Zagreb we will need a Sales and Marketing Assistant to work with various tasks within retailing, sale and marketing for Serbia.

Your main task will be to maintain our article database, marketing and campaign activities and translations.

You can expect:

- To be a part of supporting and contributing to the process of preparing commercial leaflets
- A job characterised by variant tasks but also routine work to a certain extend
- To be responsible for up-dating the system database
- Personal development
- Friendly and varied working environment in an international organisation
- To be part of a fast growing company

We expect you to:

- Be fluent in English written as well as spoken and Native Serbian. Knowledge of Bosnian is advantage
- Be service minded with an eye for the detail
- Do translations from English to Serbian/Bosnian and proof readings on a daily basis
- Be flexible and able to keep deadlines
- To work in head quarter in Zagreb
- Regulated Croatian citizenship or resident permit is advantage, but it is not requirement

Your background is not important as long as you are a team player burning for being a part of the JYSK success.

You will be given a thorough introduction so that you will be able to find your feet quickly.
Experience with SAP is an advantage but no requirement.

JYSK is known for being down to earth. We work efficiently and well together to give our customers the best experience possible. Through employee development and training we ensure that our employees are the best within retailing.

Some travelling activity must be expected.
