

We have a certain way of doing things. Hopefully you do too.

IKEA is a home furnishing company from Sweden that offers well-designed, functional home furnishing products at prices so low that as many as possible can afford them.

At IKEA you'll be a part of a global family of colleagues who share an uncommon corporate value – to contribute to create a better everyday life for the many people. You'll also find a casual but focused working environment where things get done.

Now we are looking for a Translation coordinator for IKEA Serbia.

If you

- have excellent Serbian knowledge, good stylistic and writing skills,
- have excellent English knowledge and understanding (English language degree is an advantage),
- have computer literacy (basic knowledge of InDesign is an advantage),
- are structured, strong in planning and follow-up,
- have the ability to systemise and set priorities,
- are flexible and able to deal with tight deadlines,
- have good interpersonal and organisational skills,
- are a team player,
- are interested in home furnishing,

and if you know how to achieve big results with small resources, if you recognize your own worth but see it in others too, if your enthusiasm radiates to your colleagues and you lead with your own example, if you are willing to share your ideas to find better or new ways of doing things, we would like to hear from you.

Join the IKEA family and apply for the position online by 15 September 2011 in English language.
