

JT International a.d. Senta

Member of the Japan Tobacco International Group, a leading international tobacco product manufacturer, manufacturing and marketing internationally recognized cigarette brands which are sold in more than 120 countries worldwide

Invites final year students or recently Graduated Students to apply for:

Brand Equity Internship Program

Based in Belgrade for 1 year program

Some of the Internship activities include:

- Supporting market and brand analyses
- Supporting development of brand objectives and strategies
- Supporting implementation of all marketing mix elements
- Supporting annual brand investment allocation process
- Supporting day to day communication with local agencies

If you have:

- Just completed University or are final year students
- Excellent academic record
- Strong knowledge of English language
- Excellent PC skills – MS Office (Power Point, Word, Outlook)

We offer:

- Opportunity to receive real business practice
- Friendly working environment
- Flexible working hours
- Attractive compensation package

How to apply:

If you possess all required qualifications, please send your CV, scan of student records book and professor recommendation letters (desirable) in English to serrecruit@jti.com by February 29th 2012!

